

Passenger A

My family tree

Passenger A

You study in another city and go home at weekends. You meet a friend from university on the train. You talk about your families. Follow the model. You can use the prompts in the box and the pictures on the reverse to help you.

- › Greet your friend.
- › Ask where he/she is going.
- › Ask if he/she lives with his/her family or alone.
- › Ask about his/her family.
- › Ask the names of his/her parents.
- › Answer and ask if he/she has still got grandparents.
- › Ask about other family members (blood, step, or relatives in-law).
- › Ask him/her if he/she has got any family photos.
- › Thank him/her, say goodbye and wish him/her a good journey.

To start a conversation:

Where are you going? What time will you arrive?

Do you live alone or with your family? Tell me about your family.

What is his/her name? What are their names? How many... have you got?

Have you still got...?

The family: father, mother, son, daughter, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, only child, twin, cousin.

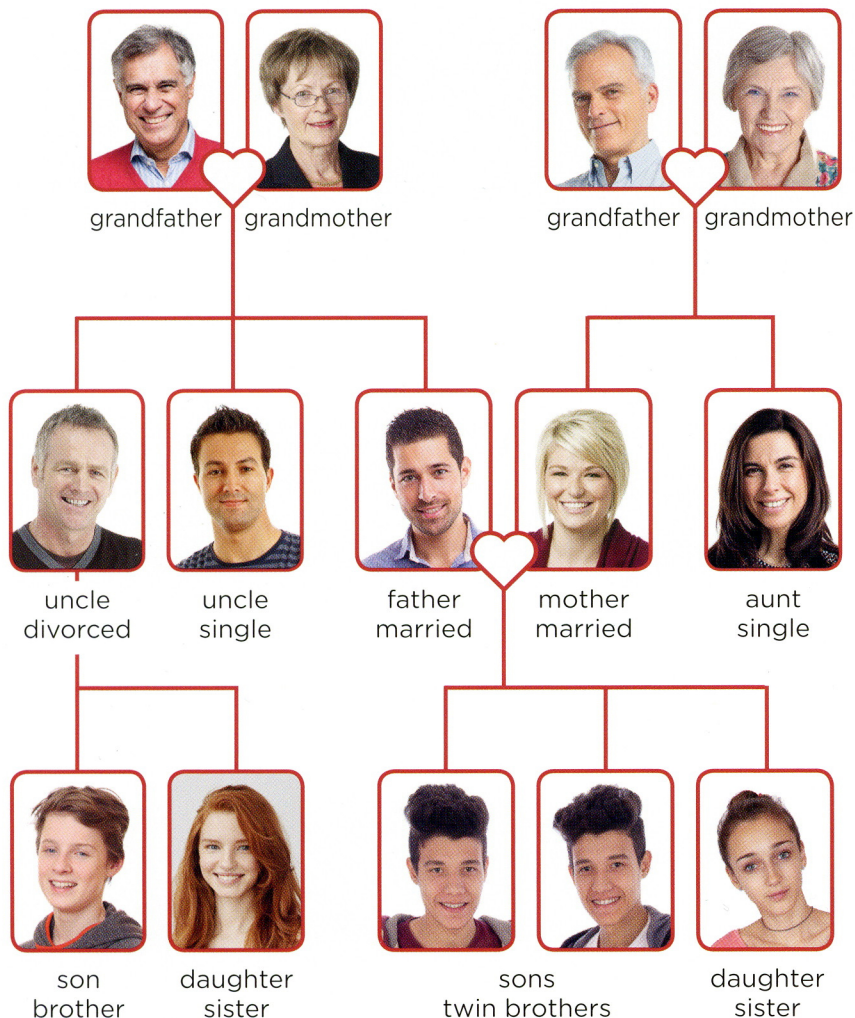

Wider family: brother-in law, sister in-law, stepmother, stepfather, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister.

Family status: single, in a relationship, engaged, married, living together, separated, divorced.

Passenger B

My family tree

Passenger B

You study in another city and go home at weekends. You meet a friend from university on the train. You talk about your families. Follow the model. You can use the prompts in the box and the pictures on the reverse to help you.

- › Greet your friend.
- › Say where you are going.
- › Answer then ask if he/she lives with his/her family or alone.
- › Answer and describe your family.
- › Answer and ask the names of his/her parents.
- › Answer and ask about his/her grandparents.
- › Talk about other family members (blood, step or relatives in-law).
- › Show him/her a family photo and ask to see one of his/hers.
- › Say goodbye and wish him/her a good journey.

To start a conversation:

Where are you going? What time will you arrive?

Do you live alone or with your family? Tell me about your family.

What is his/her name? What are their names? How many... have you got?

Have you still got...?

The family: father, mother, son, daughter, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, only child, twin, cousin.

Wider family: brother-in law, sister in-law, stepmother, stepfather, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister.

Family status: single, in a relationship, engaged, married, living together, separated, divorced.